Physical vs. Chemical Change

Physical Change

- Changes shape, size or state
- Still the same substance
- Often can be undone

---

melting ice, cutting paper, dissolving sugar

Chemical Change

- Makes a new substance
- Signs: gas, color change, heat, light, smell
- Hard to undo

---

burning wood, rusting, baking a cake